PROFESSOR INFORMATION

Professors: Bryan D. Sims, Ph.D.
Email: bryan.sims@asburyseminary.edu

Welcome

Dr. Bryan D. Sims has worked since 2001 as a Leadership and Organizational Change Coach with Spiritual Leadership, Inc. (SLI) where he has trained and coached leaders, teams, churches, and organizations over extended periods of time to bring spiritual awakening and missional effectiveness. In his work with SLI, he has worked in several United Methodist Conferences including Northwest Texas, West Virginia, Tennessee, Kentucky, Nebraska, and Alabama-West Florida. In each of these places, significant transformation is occurring in leaders, churches, and communities, as well as in the conferences at large. He has also led groups of business leaders through WorkLife Incubators in which leaders grow in Christ and learn new ways to integrate their faith and work. Dr. Sims’ most rewarding work has come through coaching three dying congregations in West Virginia to become a united, new community of faith (SLI ReStart). This new church has discovered the power of team leadership in covenant, lay mobilization, and intentionally effective disciple making and mission.
Dr. Sims is a graduate of West Texas A&M University (1998) and Asbury Theological Seminary (M.Div., 2003) and has a Ph.D. in Organizational Leadership from Regent University (2009). In addition, he is a co-author on version 2 & 3 of the L3 Leadership Incubator Materials developed in partnership with Discipleship Resources and SLI (2008, 2010), along with two audio CD’s: Demonstrate Your Power (1999) and Black and White (1997). He and his wife MyLinda have been happily married since 1997 and have four children: Isaiah, Luke, Silas, and Lydia.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course examines biblically-informed principles that shape coaching leaders and organizations in complex contexts. The course is designed to describe and analyze the principles and processes of organizational development with a focus on use of various resources to come alongside leaders and teams to effectively reach their mission in Christ-centered, Spirit-led ways. In light of the adaptive challenges that churches, organizations, and movements are facing, the course will equip students to develop coaching processes that meet these challenges with real solutions that address those complexities. Special emphasis is given to understanding the coach’s role as a change agent of sustainable organizational change.

PROGRAM LEARNING OUTCOMES (PLOs)

By the time students complete the D.Min Program, they will have an accomplished or exceptional ability to:

1. Revisit foundations for sustainable ministry.
   - Being immersed in explicit Wesleyan practices of community-based formation around the priorities of scripture, reason, tradition and experience, participants will discover transformational habits for sustainable ministry lifestyles.

2. Foster ministry leadership vision, ethic and practice relevant to their ministry context and world.
   - By deeply engaging in analysis of one significant theme from their unique ministry context, participants establish a trajectory for life-long contribution.

3. Appreciate transformational demands within contemporary ministry organizational contexts such as congregations, non-profits and marketplace engagements through various analytic means of biblical, theological, social and cultural exegesis.
   - Participants must add to their biblical and theological exegesis, cultural-situational exegesis that informs ministry leadership practice on a daily basis.

Assignments

To successfully complete this class, students must satisfactorily complete and submit all assignments on time and actively participate and contribute to the learning community.

1. Dissertation Status Report (20 points)

   Due Date:

   Points/Percentage: 20

   Learning Outcome: 1, 3

   Complete the Dissertation Status Report that is provided for you in your online classroom. This is an easy one, folks; just upload the completed form on time, and earn all 20 points!

   - 1 day late = 18 points
   - 2 days late = 15 points
   - 3 days late = 12 points
   - 4 days late = 10 points
   - 5 days late = 5 points
   - 6 or more days late = 0 points

2. Theological Foundations and Coaching Plan (80 points)

   Due Date:

   Points/Percentage: 80

   Learning Outcome: 1, 3

   Describe a theologically robust coaching model for organizational development, and design a coaching model for complex environments. Use course materials and at least 10 outside sources.

   1. In 2 – 4 pages, describe the theological foundations and focus for your coaching model.

   2. In the next 8 – 10 pages, use the course content and readings and at least 10 outside sources to describe your coaching model and how it will work in complex environments with seemingly mountainous adaptive challenges. In this section, you will need to describe a particular context or case study and apply your coaching plan to this context. What is the role of the coach? How would you begin? What is the role of the leaders within the organization you are coaching? What does the process look like? How will conflict be handled? How are adaptive challenges identified? How are solutions developed to overcome those challenges?

3. In the final 2 – 4 pages, describe how your own leadership as a coach may or may not be more effective given what you have experienced in the course. What changes have occurred in your own leadership intelligence?

Think in terms of a 15 – 18 page paper, double-spaced, with strong and rich citations. The goal is to allow the paper to heighten your capacity for coaching change in complex settings, even in your own context.

Include at least 10 sources beyond the course readings. A detailed grading rubric is available online.

ADDITIONAL ASSIGNMENT GUIDELINES

Late Assignments:
Any assignment submitted after the due date and time will be reduced one numerical point for every day late. For example, two days late would reduce the grade from a 90 to an 88, unless the student talks to the professor ahead of time and receives permission to turn in the assignment late, based upon a legitimate excuse (such as illness).

Incomplete Work:
“A grade of ‘I’ denotes that course work has not been completed due to an unavoidable emergency. Delinquency or attending to church work or other employment (i.e. being too busy) does not constitute an unavoidable emergency. Without an approved ‘I,’ a letter grade will be recorded based on grades received for completed work and an ‘F’ grade assigned to incomplete work” (ATS 2015-16 Student Handbook, page 67).
Format of Papers: Students must use MLA academic style for completing papers; this is also the required style for your dissertation.

POLICIES

Each student is responsible for being familiar with seminary policies. Asbury Seminary reserves the right to change policies when necessary. Below are brief descriptions of a few seminary policies. For more detailed information regarding school policies, please refer to the ATS Student Handbook at asburyseminary.edu/students/student-services/student-handbook/

Attendance/Participation
To progress satisfactorily and achieve learning outcomes in this class, students must meet the course requirements. DMin students are required to attend all classes during each residency.

Disability Accommodations
Asbury Theological Seminary provides reasonable accommodation on an individualized basis for qualified students with disabilities. Students are required to provide documentation of a disability prior to receiving classroom accommodations. Since accommodations may require early planning before or at the start of the term and are generally not provided retroactively, students need to contact an Accommodations Officer as soon as possible. If you are a student with a disability and believe you require reasonable accommodations in this class, you will need to make an appointment with an Accommodations Officer in the Office of the Registrar on the Kentucky campus or in the Enrollment Management Office on the Florida campus. Students attending the Tennessee site should contact the Kentucky Registrar.

Academic Integrity

Academic integrity is expected of every student. Plagiarism, that is, “presenting … another’s ideas or writings as one’s own,” is considered a serious violation of integrity and is unacceptable. Detailed information, including the penalty for plagiarizing, is in the Student Handbook. For additional information about plagiarism, go to plagiarism.org

In this course we may utilize Turnitin, an automated system that compares students’ assignments with websites as well as a database of previously submitted student work. After the assignment is processed, instructors receive a report from turnitin.com that states if and how another person’s work was used in the assignment. For more information, see www.turnitin.com. If you have questions about academic honesty, please contact the library at helpdesk@asburyseminary.edu.

Statement on Inclusive Language

It is the policy of Asbury Theological Seminary to use inclusive or non-sexist language in all Seminary publications, literature and communications. The faculty of Asbury Theological Seminary has adopted the following statement recommending the use of nondiscriminatory language by all members of the Seminary community.

Rooted deeply within the history and heritage of Methodism is the active participation in the lifting of oppression in any form so as to extend and implement the freedom of the gospel to all whom God has created and seeks to redeem. The record of Wesleyans on behalf of women is impressive and honorable and should be furthered by the modern offspring of Wesley.

Language does make a difference. When terms create certain feelings, we respond to these feelings for the sake of fostering relationships. We do not bind ourselves to etymology or even historical usage, for history is always thrusting us into new situations and struggles. We are constantly adapting our language in order to be responsible and effective communicators.

Language does not create a problem nor does language solve a problem, but language may contribute to both sometimes in obvious ways, more often in subtle ways. It is the intent of the “Suggestions for Inclusive Language” to help sensitize the Asbury Theological Seminary community to some of the cultural problems related to using previously accepted gender specific references as generic terms and to provide help in moving beyond our present habits to more just expressions.

Copyright Information

The copyright law of the United States (title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specific conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.

By using online media resources, students are consenting to abide by this copyright policy. Any duplication, reproduction, or modification of this material without express written consent from Asbury Theological Seminary and/or the original publisher is strictly prohibited.
